TOPIC

Discussing tasks.
Front end.
Database discussion.
Presentation preparation.
Microsite discussion.
Calendar review.
Division of tasks.

DESCRIPTION

Today one of the members of the group couldn't be present but the overall discussion was presented to him.
In an initial part the group members analyzed the work done in the front end for the beginning of the implementation part (which is ahead schedule), same with backend, database, etc.
The group discussed logs in the database as well as if the technology choice was the right one, and reviewed the diagrams and architecture, in a brainstorm of a session.
The group prepared for the presentation and reviewed and divided the PowerPoint parts for presentation.
The group member responsible for the microsite asked for reviews regarding organization and some other documents he had added.
The calendar since ahead schedule was reviewed in order to maintain stability and organization.
Some tasks until the next presentation were distributed.
